Dear Miss Miller

It seems years since I wrote to you altho I know its only weeks since I heard you speak over the phone. Well old Calgary is basking in California weather. I hear you say Well they should be satisfied. But no we are not There is either a passing thro an election. Or there is one on the way. I see Howson moved a vote (No confidence) in the Government. If he can manage to upset them we will have an election, and Miss Turner will have a chance to run again. I was out to Glenmore and had dinner with Mrs Allen Prior to her leaving at the end of the month for Victoria. She has got a very nice husband a very likable man, sensible, and a good worker. I was up yesterday at Mrs Smith's Walter looks well. I promised you I would writes, and remind you of his success in winning 2nd prize in the students bridge design. Sponsored by the American Institute of Steel Construction.

I thought maybe you could interest Mr Yberridge, as it was quite a big event. I suppose you have hardly time to breathe. I suppose Mrs Yberridge and the baby are around, I am sure he will be quite interesting now. I am kept more busy than interested this pair keep me hopping. Well I do not wish to tire you But I trust Mr Bennett will come out of the muddle with flying colors. The C. G. S. serves a useful purpose. The Air must be well charged with all those fire eaters so I'll bring off hoping if you can at all you will do something for Walter. Conditions are pretty tough in the West. Good night your sincere friend Jean M William

Ottawa, February 27, 1964.

Dear Mrs. McWilliam:

I have your letter regarding Walter Smith, and I certainly will never lose interest in him, but I do not know of any permanent position to which I can direct his attention. I did speak to Mr. Herridge about him in view of his success with the bridge design, but it is practically impossible to get a position in the States for a Canadian. For one reason, the matter would have to go through the American Legation here and they just won't pass Canadians who are going over there to get jobs.

A federal public works programme is being mooted, and if that gets under way I think there will be little difficulty in placing Walter, but at the present moment I am stumped.

I would like to have seen you when I was in Calgary, but the last time I have been there I haven't had a chance to see anyone, and I left my old friend, Mrs. Sanford, in a welter of tears because she had not even had lunch with me. Perhaps some time before the next election I will be out, and we can have a proper chat.

With kindest regards, I am

Yours faithfully,

E. Millar

Dear Miss Millar:

Your wife of the 29th of March re Easter flowers was duly received. I obtained information from the florists and attended upon Colonel Robinson. The final list settled by Colonel Robinson and the writer was as follows:-

Mrs. Menzies,
Mrs. Woodhall,
Mrs. J. W. Crawford (wife of President of Cons. Association).

Mrs. Wm. Pearce,
Mrs. Rine (President, Young Women's Cons. Ass'n.)
Old People's Home,
Mrs. Pinkham,
Mrs. Jephson,
Mrs. Todd,
Mrs. Jean McWilliam,
The Misses. Smith,
Mrs. Kent Power.

Mrs. Power has only recently recovered from a serious illness and the Colonel thought it would be nice to include her name in the list.

Mrs. Nolan,
Mrs. Chambers,
Mrs. Cluny Macdonnell.

The cards were written by the Colonel. While his imitation of Mr. Bennett's signature is not quite as good as your own, it is much better than I was able to do. The above orders which total
