

ROSELLA BJORNSON: CELEBRATING WOMEN OF AVIATION

Rosella Bjornson is Canada's first woman commercial airline jet aircraft pilot and Canada's first woman airline captain.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 2016 1:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Alberta Aviation Museum, 11410 Kingsway, Edmonton

Rosella Bjornson makes history by becoming Canada's first woman airline jet aircraft pilot - April 1973.

Come learn about and celebrate the historic achievements of Rosella Bjornson and her contributions to the advancement of women in aviation. Capt. Bjornson is Canada's first woman commercial airline jet aircraft pilot and first woman airline captain. She is also the first jet-qualified woman airline pilot in North America and the first woman member of the Canadian Air Line Pilots Association (CALPA). She was inducted into Canada's Aviation Hall of Fame.

The event is co-sponsored by the Alberta Aviation Museum, the Alberta Labour History Institute (ALHI), and Elevate Aviation (an organization promoting women in aviation).

The public is invited to attend, and admission to the event is free.
